Mark 6:1-13

The Rejection of Jesus at Nazareth

6 He left that place and came to his hometown, and his disciples followed him. 2 On the sabbath he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astounded. They said, 'Where did this man get all this? What is this wisdom that has been given to him? What deeds of power are being done by his hands! 3 Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary^[a] and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon, and are not his sisters here with us?' And they took offence^[b] at him. 4 Then Jesus said to them, 'Prophets are not without honour, except in their hometown, and among their own kin, and in their own house.' 5 And he could do no deed of power there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people and cured them. 6 And he was amazed at their unbelief. 7 He called the twelve and began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over the unclean spirits. 8 He ordered them to take nothing for their journey except a staff; no bread, no bag, no money in their belts; 9 but to wear sandals and not to put on two tunics. 10 He said to them, 'Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave the place. 11 If any place will not welcome you and they refuse to hear you, as you leave, shake off the dust that is on your feet as a testimony against them.' 12 So they went out and proclaimed that all should repent. 13 They cast out many demons and anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.

Tokyo Olympics – Stretching every sinew

The Rt Revd Libby Lane, the Bishop of Derby, and lead Bishop for Sports looks ahead to the Tokyo Olympic Games. The service will feature testimonies from Christian athletes who hope to participate in the Olympics as they make their final preparations. We will also hear from those who support athletes pastorally as they face the greatest pressure in their careers.

The readings, that focus on God as our strength, are Isaiah 40: 28 – 31 and Hebrews 12: 1-3; 11 – 14.

Maggie's Ordination

Congratulations to Maggie Metcalfe who was ordained a Deacon at Salisbury Cathedral last weekend.

Maggie writes..

Having been on the PCC in Odstock and Nunton, a member of team council, church warden, and contributed to running The Filling Station, I felt there was still something more God wanted of me. The nudges became more and more uncomfortable until eventually I felt I had to explore what they might mean. I was pretty surprised to find that it seemed as if God was calling me to be ordained. Yet that that 'call' was affirmed by many other people, the diocese and the wider church and now I am on the threshold of starting an exciting new chapter of life as a self supporting, ordained minister in the church of England.

I am hugely grateful to everyone who has helped and supported me in this fascinating journey and will continue to pray for God's work here in the Chalke Valley.
